

The New Common Rule Is Here

Is your human subject protection program ready?

Unlike other consultants who provide you a one-size-fits-all HRPP toolkit, Kinetiq offers custom solutions designed to work for your organization.

Your Processes, Our Expertise

Ready to get started?
Contact us at info@KinetiqIdeas.com for more information.

The new Common Rule represents a landmark pivot in human subject protections on many fronts, from sIRBs to new exemption categories and broad consent.

These changes have the potential to impact organizations on multiple levels. Stand above the crowd and let our regulatory experts guide you through challenges and strategic steps required to accommodate the new Common Rule early and thoroughly.

Challenges

- Organizational readiness
- Functioning as a sIRB
- SOP and form updates
- Understanding new definitions and categories
- Evaluating and implementing new rules and requirements
 - New Exemption Categories
 - Limited IRB Review

Kinetiq Solutions

- SOP development and updates
- Consent and sIRB strategy
- Assessment of readiness
- Development of grant application templates for sIRB
- Researcher education
- IRB member and staff training

Whether your organization needs a simple HRPP Health Check or a full suite of training and process development, Kinetiq has the expertise to guide your organization as it navigates the new Common Rule.